

Blueberry Park Community P-Patch Garden Program

721 Sylvan Way, Bremerton

Blueberry Park P-Patch 2026 Agreement & Gardeners Information

WELCOME GARDENERS

The City of Bremerton Parks and Recreation Department provides community garden plots for citizens to rent for personal use. The Blueberry Park P-Patch is for organic gardening only.

WHAT YOU CAN GROW

Gardeners may grow any vegetables, small fruits, flowers or herbs. Produce may not be sold but may be shared. Gardeners are encouraged to donate their surplus produce to local food banks. Food bank information will be posted inside the lending tool shed.

MANDATORY GARDENER ORIENTATION

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10TH @ 3:30PM

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26TH @ 5:30PM

Gardeners may attend in-person at the Sheridan Park Community Center, 680 Lebo Blvd., Bremerton or virtually via Zoom (Link to be provided at a later date)

PLOT SIZE AND ANNUAL FEE (non-refundable)

Raised Beds	Bremerton Resident	$20.00
	Non-Resident	$25.00
10 x 20 feet (200 sq ft)	Bremerton Resident	$60.00
	Non-Resident	$72.50
16 x 31 feet (496 sq ft)	Bremerton Resident	$85.00
	Non-Resident	$97.50

Plots cannot be enlarged; their configuration cannot be changed. There will be a $40 fee assessed for checks returned for Non Sufficient Funds. Plot fees are non-refundable.

Returning Gardeners: Please notify Bremerton Parks & Recreation of your intent to renew your plot no later than January 31st of each year. Final payment deadline for plot renewal is February 16th. Plots will be opened to wait listed and new gardeners after this deadline.

This is a year-round garden, however water service is shut off from November 1 until March 31.

Any gardeners who did not complete their community work hours will forfeit their plots for next year to gardeners on the wait list.

PLOT ASSIGNMENTS

Garden plots will be assigned by order of registration. A waiting list will be established for gardeners who did not get a plot assignment. Vacant plots will be filled off the waiting list. Required 4 hours of community work must be completed by December 1 to ensure returning gardener privileges.

OTHER BENEFITS

- Water is provided to all gardeners.
- The lending shed has a selection of long handled tools for the shared use of all gardeners.
- A library of organic gardening information is also located in the lending shed.
- Gardening classes and clinics are offered by Master Gardener's throughout the season.

P-Patch Gardener's Agreement

- Gardeners must comply with all policies, rules, and regulations listed here, and posted in the gardener's lending shed. Non-compliant gardeners may be dismissed from the P-Patch program.
- Those who do not follow policies will be notified with one written warning. Non-compliance and/or lack of communication within 2 weeks of that notification will result in dismissal from the garden. All fees are non-refundable.
- Any plot that remains unattended or uncultivated by April 1st will be cleaned out and reassigned without refund or access to crops.
- Gardeners will plant at least half (1/2) of my plot by June 15th
- P-Patch gardeners will respect all persons with whom they interact at the park. Do not pick fruits, vegetables, or flowers that are not yours.
- P-Patch gardeners will conduct themselves in a courteous, respectful manner and refrain from profanity, harassment, disruptive behavior or abuse of any kind in person or via email.
- Any gardeners who do not complete community work hours will forfeit their plots to gardeners on the waiting list.
- Contribute a minimum 4 hours of community garden work by December 1st, weeding and maintaining the common areas of the garden. Working on your own plot does not count towards these hours. You are responsible for recording your community hours in a binder located in the shed. Work party days may be scheduled but you may also work on your own to weed and maintain the common areas.
- Pathways surrounding your plot are your responsibility to keep weeded year round. Keep all pathways free of debris and equipment.
- Use only organic materials; no processed fertilizers, insecticides, herbicides or treated wood may be used. If unsure, ask Bremerton Parks and Recreation Staff.
- Keep your plot weeded, watered, harvested.
- No motorized equipment allowed except small rototillers. No weed whackers.
- Remove all litter and garbage. Compostable garden debris/green waste must be placed in the designated dumpster or composted in plot #58. You may also choose composting within the boundaries of your plot.
- Conserve water. Never leave water on unless you are present in the P-Patch. Never leave water on overnight. Report leaky hoses to Bremerton Parks and Recreation Staff. Water service is shut off from Nov. 1 until March 31.
- Stay within the boundaries of your own plot. Do not intrude on neighboring plots by over-spraying, watering, shading or other activities. Keep invasive, vining and spreading crops confined in your plot. Plots cannot be enlarged and their configuration cannot be changed; plot markers must be left in place.
- Greenhouses or permanent structures are not permitted in the community garden without prior permission.
- Produce, seeds or other products from plots cannot be sold; however, these items can be shared.
- P-Patch gardeners are expected to read regular email communications from Bremerton Parks and Recreation Staff.
- Report all vandalism to the Bremerton Parks and Recreation Department immediately at (360) 473-5305.
- All gardeners are required to review and sign "Rules for Participants" agreement prior to engaging in gardening activities.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND HOLD HARMLESS

In consideration for being allowed to participate in a city of Bremerton Parks and Recreation program, I hereby, for myself, my child, my heirs, executors and administrators, agree to waive any claims, release and hold harmless the City, its officers, officials, employees, agents, and volunteers including class instructors, for any and all claims, injuries, damages, losses or suites, including all legal costs and attorney fees, arising out of or in connection with my participation in classes and activities with the Bremerton Parks and Recreation Department, now or in the future. I hereby agree to fully comply with the rules and regulations for participants, established by the City of Bremerton and I fully understand that I may sustain injury as a result of my participation in these activities. Bremerton Parks and Recreation Department uses photographs and video recordings for historical records and to promote programs and events. The Department does not have the capability to track those not wanting to be photographed or video recorded.
