

Active Transportation Plan Engagement Approach

ATP development will include a robust public engagement component including two public meetings and 3 workshops with a community advisory group.

Role of Workshop Advisory Group

Community advisors will have an important role in the development of the Active Transportation Plan.
They will:

Form common goals for the ATP

Provide input on ATP network development

Collaborate with project team at each stage of plan development

Provide input on prioritization of proposed projects

Share information with wider community

Up to 7 Bremerton Residents are needed to serve as:

Community Advisors

Who we are looking for:

- Bremerton residents
- Good communicators
- Representative of the diversity of Bremerton's population, needs, and transportation users
- Desire to learn, collaborate, and compromise
- Strong connection to and sense of responsibility to community

Time Commitment:

- 3 workshops (about 2 hours each) over the next 12 - 15 months
- Additional time before meetings to review materials

How to Join?

01 Application Steps:

- Visit our website at www.bremertonwa.gov/1423/Active-Transportation-Plan-Update
- Fill out the online application form.
- Wait for confirmation from the selection teams.

02 Selection Process:

- Our teams will review applications and may reach out to learn more about you.
- If selected you will receive further information regarding the committee.